

Accreditation Table

| Categories/ Standards | Level 1: NVR informed practice | Level 2: Application of NVR Practice | Level 3: Accredited NVR Practitioner |
|----------------------------------|--|--|--|
| Entry requirements: | An interest in NVR and a commitment to attend the full training. | Successfully attended level 1 and completed the component of 2 reflections: 1 reflection on a reading they have done, 1 aspect of NVR that has particularly interested them to a satisfactory level. | Completion of Level 1 and 2 trainings including the assessments. A willingness to undertake independent learning and to engage with the growing field of research and knowledge about NVR. Ability to present clinical work and to engage in supervision |
| No of hrs of training: | 24 hrs taught minimum plus independent study | 24 hrs taught minimum plus independent study | 24 hours taught minimum plus independent study Level 1,2 & 3 combined must equal 72 hours taught training hours minimum |
| Clinical work required: | Not mandatory | 8-12-week group of 2 hrs with pre-and post-reflection (=24hrs - 48hrs clinical practice) or 8hrs -10 hrs x 2 direct client work | Evidence of continued supervised clinical practice (clinical log) 60 hours minimum NVR Practice with minimum 40 direct client contact. |
| Supervision: | Not mandatory | All students need to attend 4 x 1.5 hour supervision, while they are running a 8 - 12-week parent group as part of their required clinical practice. | Supervision starts with clinical practice (group supervision: 4x1.5hs; individual supervision 1h for 10hrs direct client contact work) |

Accreditation Table

| | | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|---|---|
| | | Can be additional or in-built in the training or A minimum of 2 x 1 hour of supervision to 10 hours of practice required for individual client work. | |
| Assessment component: | No assessed component Those wishing to proceed to Level 2 will need to submit two pieces of reflective work demonstrating their understanding of how NVR can be applied in their own context and beyond, to include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Production of a reflective log containing reflections on how NVR has resonated with the applicant? 2. A piece explaining your views on NVR literature such as Context 132 April 2014 NVR special edition: OR Haim Omer: Non-violent Resistance a New Approach to Parenting | Ongoing practice assessment and reviews | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Reflective log, covering practice from level 2 onwards 2. An inquiry into an aspect of NVR that has stimulated learning. This could be presented as an essay (2,000 words), a podcast, a play, a video etc 3. Presentation of an aspect of NVR in the form of a poster or creative slide show/video etc 4. Creation of an original element or resource to support the delivery of NVR 5. Each of the 4 elements makes 25% of the overall marking |

Accreditation Table

| Awards: | L1 certificate | L2 certified practitioner | L3 accredited practitioner |
|------------------------------|--|---|--|
| Key Learning/Content: | The background, context and principles of NVR: What is violence? History of non-violence Connecting Authority versus 'old' authority values/styles The relational aspect of NVR: The anchoring function of parenting Relational gestures Connection before Correction Supporters: Building a support network Roles of supporters Creating a village/ shift from I to We Parenting values Parent Participation NVR is parent-focused Presence and obstacles to presence Empathy and Compassion Forgiveness Looking after yourself/stress management Understanding escalatory patterns: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced clinical application of NVR in a range of more complex situations and settings • Undertaking supervised practice • Presenting evidence of work undertaken and acting on feedback • Adapting NVR for a range of specific clinical needs/presenting difficulties • Bespoke/creative NVR packages • NVR with groups and individuals • Integrating NVR with other approaches • NVR in schools/ communities/ youth offending, foster carers, adoptive parents and residential settings, CAMHS. Social Care • Building network presence • Challenges within multiagency working/negotiating roles within different domains • Safeguarding/working with risk • Clinical supervision • Ethics and values of NVR • Graces • Self-reflexivity and anti-discriminatory practice • Developing parent advisor/facilitator roles. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Undertaking supervised practice • Presenting evidence of work undertaken and acting on feedback • Participating in supervision, developing peer supervision/ reflecting team. • Skills and demonstrating the impact of supervision on practice. • Presenting practice - case studies, showcases of creative approaches etc. • Demonstrating application of NVR in situated contexts, ability to problem solve • Submitting written reflections of work undertaken and responding to feedback • Undertaking a critical reflective practice inquiry • Evidence and ability of engaging with theory and practice. • Evaluating their own situated practice and assemble this with literature on NVR and other approaches |

Accreditation Table

| | | | |
|--|--|---|---|
| | Complimentary and symmetrical escalation De-escalation strategies (strike while the iron's cold) Putting an NVR campaign into action: Prioritising behaviours (baskets) Different types of Announcements (mini announcements/self-announcements) Preparing and delivering announcements Maintaining active resistance: Vigilant care Message campaigns Sit-ins Tailing Working with siblings Thinking about NVR in their organisational contexts | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuous development of learning and practice for users and practitioners (follow up /refresher, training, reading, social media groups etc) • Presentation of Clinical Practice and relevant literature | |
| Time scales: | From end of foundation level – 2 years to commence level 2. | Coursework completed within 1 year of end of Level 2. | Coursework completed within 1 year of the end of level 3 module*. |
| Qualification or pathway opportunities on completion: | Level 1 certificate After level 1 course participants can include NVR principles, skills and strategies to inform their practice. You can assist an accredited NVR group facilitator in running NVR groups under NVR supervision. | Level 2 certified practitioners Your informed practice is more adaptable to different situations. You can co-facilitate NVR groups as a certificated group practitioner under supervision | Level 3 Accredited NVR practitioner on completion of all course work and clinical hours. You can be the lead NVR group facilitator under NVR supervision |

Accreditation Table

| | Entry to Level 2 based on criteria of admission | Entry to Level 3 based on criteria of admission | Entry to supervision level based on criteria of admission |
|---|---|---|---|
| Marking & examining board: | N/A | Accredited NVR UK training organisation. | Accredited NVR UK training organisation. |
| Please contact training providers for their prospectus and contents | | | |
| Maintenance of NVR accreditation: | Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Annual record of Continuing Professional Development* (CPD) to be completed; kept by the practitioner and submitted every 5 years from the date of accreditation. This must include: • Three reflective logs of clinical practice (one for each of the years). • Evidence of practice hours. • Record of supervision: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ 40 hours of supervised individual NVR practice with a minimum 4 supervision sessions per year, with an Accredited NVR UK supervisor. One supervision of 1.5 hrs can be a peer supervision group. And/ Or <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ A minimum of one supervised 8-12 week NVR group per year, for the three years. ○ Supervision consisting of at least 4 x 1.5hrs sessions, per year with an Accredited NVR UK supervisor. *Completion of a minimum of 12 hours CPD per year with record including: reading, attendance at conferences, workshops, evidence of development of NVR practice and knowledge. CPD portfolio should be submitted by end December of the relevant year Submissions will be assessed and moderated by the NVR UK accreditation panel. Reaccreditation certification confirmed within 3 months if appropriate. | | |